This is Uchaworld

Where Utopia meets Reality.

AW 25

As I draw near, my vision begins to blur. Boundaries fade, and shapes dissolve into the pupil of my eye. I can't see. What is this? What does it look like?

It feels like a dream. I don't understand. Where am I?

Words escape me. The senses no longer function separately; they merge, collide, and create something entirely new.

I'm submerged in a dream, yet I can dream with my eyes wide open. I see life forms emerging from nowhere, and everywhere, all at once. I can't define it. I can't name it.

But this is Uchaworld.
