Frett

Our Story

Founded in 2016, Frett is a designer knitwear studio that emphasizes timeless design, fine materials and responsible production in limited quantities. Our slow-made collections are comprised of minimalistic, effortless pieces that entwine simplicity with attention to detail, while celebrating natural materials and their unique properties. All items are crafted from high-quality natural fibers, and ethically produced in Europe.

Materials

The yarns we use are sourced twice a year from Pitti Filati Fair, working with mainly Italian suppliers. Our collections are composed of various blends, focusing on natural fibres and their amazing properties: breathability, superb drape and handle, biodegradability, anti-bacterial and sweat-wicking properties and more.
